

Y Lead?

Young Female Leaders in Irish Society

You're invited to attend the launch of the new online video series "Y-Lead? : Young Female Leaders in Irish Society" to be held on 7 July, 6-8pm at The Exchange in Upper Exchange st Temple Bar.

Y-Lead is a video project aimed at profiling young women from across Irish society who are leading their communities. The videos are designed to inspire and empower young women to be leader's themselves, as well as praising the work of inspirational young women such as: Orla Tinsley, Gillian McInerney, Peppy Nephrine, Laura Harmon, Anna Cosgrave and Vilma Barbosa.

The event will be launched by Senator Kathryn Reilly, the youngest person ever elected to the Seanad, and will include guest introductions for each of the videos. There will be a panel discussion following the event which will involve speakers such as Justine McCarthy, Salome Mbugua and Katherine Zappone amongst others.

Drinks and snacks will be abundant.

This event is organised by the Irish Feminist Network with support from the National Women's Council of Ireland and is made possible by the Women's Fund at the Community Foundation of Ireland.

Please RSVP to irishfeministnetwork@gmail.com as there is limited space available.